President's Message

The President is in the woods chasing bears...

The Points of Interest below look rather insignificant; however, if you're a hunter the "season" is here. Dates of Interest are listed below, make sure to check your hunting guides and gear and BE SAFE. I hope all of your hunting dreams are fulfilled this year.

Late October and the first two (2) weeks in November are the busiest all year for the Rifle Range; we as a club need to be as supportive as possible and fill in wherever we can. Even non-RSO Members can be of help, please call Dave Edwards if you'd like to assist.

The holidays are quickly approaching, the family Christmas party is on the 8th of December, be sure to call early space is limited.

Winter Trap will begin in early December, the format will be back to years gone by, no money pots. It will be a fun time with competition and no stress.

This club has some fantastic things to offer, we have every event and trained personnel to teach all the disciplines of the outdoor sports (Rifle, pistol, shotgun, archery); as John Watson says, "We're Macomb County's best kept secret." My feelings exactly.

Please keep your passion for the club and outdoor sports near your heart and we'll have a wonderful hunting/holiday season (never thought I'd say that together) to come.

Hunt the Club Raffle

The 2012 Hunt the Club Raffle Tickets are on sale at the Bar for $20.00 per ticket per season. Archery season has already been filled, muzzleloader, firearm and late archery are still available. Only Members can hunt the club during non-business hours, you may not give your ticket to another shooter or allow someone to shoot in your place after you've taken your animal; one animal per ticket, a wounded/lost deer is your shot for the week and you are done.
